

CQUniversity Alumni Awards

Candidate Proposal form

Alumni

Do you know a graduate who is doing something noteworthy? Put them forward to be considered for an alumni award.

CQUni takes great pride in the achievements of our alumni. The annual CQUniversity Alumni Awards recognises CQUni graduates who are making outstanding contributions to their industry or community.

The type of contributions we recognise varies: it can be through leadership/innovation in business, charity/volunteerism, research and more.

If you know of an alumnus making outstanding contributions to their industry, community, or the University please forward their name to the AR team, so they can be considered for an alumni award.

Name of award candidate
Summary of how this graduate is contributing to their industry/community? Please list achievements, awards or volunteer work. (Dot points are acceptable.) Include weblinks to public information, or email relevant evidence with your form. Preferred max. 500 words

Notes

1. The Alumni Relations team will check the eligibility of the candidate. VET (post-merger) and HED award course graduates are eligible. Further Eligibility information can be found in the Alumni Awards policy on the CQU website.
2. Alumni Relations team will prepare nominations for candidates. Proposers may be consulted for more information during the preparation of the nomination.
3. The nomination process is confidential and alumni will not be consulted as part of the nomination process. Alumni have the option of accepting / declining the award after the determination of preferred candidates has been finalised by the Ceremonial and Honorary Awards Committee.
4. All candidates put forward will remain on the awards list in subsequent years until they either win or are considered ineligible.
