

Official launch CQUniversity Disability-Informed Action Plan (DIAP)

Celebrating International Day for People with Disability on your campus.

3 December, 2025

Join us to celebrate International Day for People with Disability (IDPwD) at your campus or via Zoom, with events and activities to build disability awareness and understanding. The theme for this year is “fostering disability inclusive societies for advancing social progress”.

- Official DIAP launch at 11am (AEST) on Rockhampton campus, with a live Zoom broadcast to all campuses. Join online here.
- Speakers include:
 - Graeme Innes AM, Chancellor
 - Professor Nick Klomp, Vice-Chancellor and President
 - Professor Jonathan Powles, Vice-President Student Success
- Winners announced for the Breaking Barriers Art competition
 - Assistive Technology Empathy Lab hands-on demonstrations of accessibility tools
 - Morning teas to connect and celebrate IDPwD

"Inclusion of people with disabilities in our university will be one of our lasting legacies."

CQU Chancellor: Graeme Innes AM

"Together, we are building a university where inclusion is not the exception, but the expectation."

CQU Vice-Chancellor: Nick Klomp

Please join us for this significant event and show your support for fostering disability inclusive societies for advancing social progress.
