Professor Adrian Miller, Member of the Jirrbal nation, Deputy Vice-President Indigenous Engagement, BHP Chair in Indigenous Engagement and Co-Director of Jawun Research Centre.

Abstract

I will explore possible implications of the rejection of First Nations people from the Australian Constitution and the impact this may have on our everyday work.

I will also discuss the ramifications of the 2023 referendum outcome for developing a new Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP), our learning and teaching practices, and potential impacts on research and engagement.
